

10 Out of 4,000.

10

U.S. colleges that are need-blind and meet full need for every applicant, including international students.

~4,000

degree-granting colleges in the U.S.

~100

are need-blind for domestic applicants.

10

need-blind AND full-need, worldwide.

- Harvard
- Yale
- Princeton
- MIT
- Brown (2029)

- Amherst
- Dartmouth
- Bowdoin
- Washington and Lee
- Notre Dame (2029)

"Need-blind" describes the admission decision; "meets full need" describes the aid decision — two separate promises a school can make independently.

Sources: college-reported need-blind/meets-full-need policies, as of 2026.